PAIA REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO RECORD FORM v1.0 2015.....	19

1. Right of Access to Information

1.1. Introduction

- 1.1.1. The 1996 South African Constitution, by providing a statutory right of access on request to any record held by the state as well as access to records held by private bodies, entrenches the fundamental right to information.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (“the Act”), which came into effect on 9 March 2001, seeks to advance the values of transparency and accountability in South Africa and provides the mechanism for requesters to exercise and protect their constitutional right to request access to a record.

- 1.1.2. The Act establishes the following statutory rights of requesters to any record of a private body if:

- That record is required for the exercise or protection of any of his or her legal rights;

- That requester complies with all the procedural requirements; and
- Access is not refused in terms of any ground referred to in the Act.

In terms of the Act private bodies are required to publish a manual to assist requesters who wish to request access to a record.

1.2. Availability of the iOCO PAIA Manual and Entry Point for requests

1.2.1. This document serves as the iOCO manual (“the Manual”) in accordance with the requirements of section 51 of the Act to facilitate access to records held by iOCO. A copy of this Manual is available to the public in a PDF (“Portable Document Format”) version on the website of iOCO at www.ioco.tech or on request from the Information Officer referred to in this Manual. iOCO endorses the spirit of the Act and believes that this Manual will assist requesters in exercising their rights.

1.2.2. In summary, the Manual provides information on the:

- Contact details of the Information Officer;
- Structure and functions of iOCO;
- Subjects and categories of records that are held by iOCO; and
- Procedure that needs to be followed and criteria that have to be met by a requester to request access to a record

1.3. Who may request access to information:

1.3.1. The Act provides that a requester is only entitled to access to a record if the record is required for the exercise or protection of a right. Only requests for access to a record, where the requester has satisfied the Information Officer that the record is required to exercise or protect a right, will be considered. A requester may act in different capacities in making a request for a record. This will influence the amount to be charged when a request has been lodged.

1.3.2. Requesters may make a request as:

- A personal requester who requests a record about him/herself;
- An agent requester who requests a record on behalf of someone else with that person’s consent and where it is required for the protection of that person’s legal right;
- A third-party requester who requests a record about someone else with that person’s consent and where it is required for the protection of that person’s legal right; and
- A public body who may request a record if:
 - It fulfills the requirements of procedural compliance;
 - The record is required for the exercise or protection of a right; and
 - No grounds for refusal exist.
